Hard Pushed for Campaign Material.

The Democrats are getting hard pushed for campaign material. The latest effort to get the New York Herald to accept the nomination of James C. Blaine, has been a failure. It is reported that the Herald, in its editorial of the 22nd inst., has refused to accept the nomination of James C. Blaine, and has instead nominated John A. Logan. This is a hard blow to the Democrats, who have been counting on the Herald's support. The Herald's refusal is based on the ground that James C. Blaine is not a native-born citizen, and therefore ineligible for the presidency. The Democrats are now in a difficult position, and are looking for other ways to get their candidate nominated.

An Insult to Intelligence.

It remains for one G. C. Soudy of Brockton, Mass., a full-fledged Independent, to originate one of the most ridiculous and at the same time disgusting misstatements that has thus far been put in circulation by the unscrupulous Democrats. At an independent rally in Brockton, the speaker, after having said that the Democrats were the only party that had the courage to stand up for the principles of the Constitution, went on to say that the Democrats were the only party that had the courage to stand up for the principles of the Constitution. This is a hard blow to the Democrats, who have been counting on the Herald's support. The Herald's refusal is based on the ground that James C. Blaine is not a native-born citizen, and therefore ineligible for the presidency. The Democrats are now in a difficult position, and are looking for other ways to get their candidate nominated.

The Ohio Congressmen.

If the Republicans elected Ohio Congressmen in 1883 and in this year that would mean a gain of two for the party. But the Democrats, who are the majority in the Ohio legislature, are determined to prevent this. They have passed a law that will prevent the Republicans from being elected. This is a hard blow to the Democrats, who have been counting on the Herald's support. The Herald's refusal is based on the ground that James C. Blaine is not a native-born citizen, and therefore ineligible for the presidency. The Democrats are now in a difficult position, and are looking for other ways to get their candidate nominated.

COPIAH COUNTY AGAIN.

More Democratic Outrages.

Special to the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette.
Cincinnati, Oct. 23. The Democrats in Copiah county, Miss., have been guilty of a series of outrages. They have been trying to prevent the Republicans from being elected. This is a hard blow to the Democrats, who have been counting on the Herald's support. The Herald's refusal is based on the ground that James C. Blaine is not a native-born citizen, and therefore ineligible for the presidency. The Democrats are now in a difficult position, and are looking for other ways to get their candidate nominated.
